

	Example of sentence type	1	2	3	4	5	6
Simple (SS)	Rachel bit the golden apple.
Compound (CO)	Joe put on the mask and stepped onto the stage.
3 Adjectives (3A)	The air was cool, musty and damp.
3 Verbs (3V)	Owen caught the ball, dodged the defender and scored a try.
Where Opener (WO)	At the end of the pier, a lonely lighthouse faced the incoming storm.
When Opener (WO)	After the stroke of midnight, Heather shouldered her bag and headed for home.
How Opener (HO)	Gingerly, Paul stepped forward on his injured leg.
Short Sentence (SS)	She stopped.
Embedded Clause (EC/SLS)	The elephant, who had a fear of heights, refused to climb the ladder.
Complex (CX)	Because she believed in herself, Imogen knew she could achieve anything she put her mind to.
Verb Opener (VO)	Charging into the room, Timothy hoped for a miracle.
Empty Sentence (ES?)	Was this the best he could hope for?
+ing to speech (+ing)	'Is it mine?' she asked, peering into the bag.
Adjective Starter (AS)	Dreadful pictures hung on every wall.
Colon in a list (:)	For the camping trip, several items were required: a tent, a sleeping bag and a pillow.
Some; others (:)	Some people love carrot cake; others loathe eating vegetables in a dessert.
Outside; inside (OI)	Outside, she maintained an air of courage; inside, she trembled with fear.
Description: detail (DeDe)	The door was destroyed: it hung loosely off its hinges.
Semi-colon (;)	Desperately, the hiker scabbled around in the copse to find some shelter; the sun was riding high and soon his skin would begin to blister.
TimING	After hesitating briefly, they strode triumphant into the stadium.
With its (WI)	With its dark towers and looming shadows, the abbey cut an ominous figure on the skyline.
The more, the more (TMTM)	The more she thought about it, the more she dreaded it.
Having Verb (HV)	Having seen the size of the waves, he was anxious about entering the water.
3 dash (3-)	Hunger, greed or loneliness – which would kill him first?
Imagine 3 examples (I3E)	Imagine a place where there are no wars, where the air is clean and where the sun always shines: this was such a place.						